WORK AT OLYMPIA

Will Have Governor's Message at Today's Session.

BILL AGAINST THE RAILROADS

Employees May Not Work Over Fourteen Hours as Against Twenty-four to Thirty-Six Hours Now. Appropriation for the Fair.

Olympia, Wash., Jan. 10.—The two branches of the legislature met her today in joint session and a large amount of business was transacted considering the infancy of the session, and the disarrangement that always prevails on the opening days.

The first business before the two bodies was the canvassing of the vote cast in the last general election. At the close of the canvass the republican nominees were declared the duly qualified officers.

Both houses adopted a concurrent resolution providing for a joint session on Wednesday to receive the message of Governor McBride and the inaugural address of Governor-elect Meade.

Two railway commission bills were introduced in the senate today; one being similar to the commission bill introduced two years ago, which passed the house but was defeated in the senate; the other adopted the Texas law in almost every detail.

A three-cent rate bill was also introduced in the senate, and a bill providing that no railroad employe shall be employed for more than 10 consecutive hours, except in cases of great emergency when fourteen hours shall be allowed as the limit.

The latter law will work a great revolution in railroad circles if passed, as its effect will be to shorten freight divisions, and the railroads of the state will be compelled to establish new divisions and employ more men. At present freight train crews are frequently on the road as long as 26 hours, and many of them do not ask for "rest" until they have been on the road for 24 to 30 hours.

A senate bill was introduced appropriating $100,000 to prepare an exhibit for the Lewis and Clark fair. No bills were received in the house today.

The reorganization of the state supreme court became effective today. Justice Frank H. Rudkin succeeding Justice Thomas J. Anders. Justice Wallace Mount was chosen as chief justice. The change of state offices will occur tomorrow at noon.

WILDCAT CONCERN.

$56,000,000 for Absurd and Useless Projects.

Chicago, Jan. 10.—Judge Kavanagh has appointed Edward Bemmer receiver for the Whitney Electrical Company, which is capitalized for $56,000,000, to promote the alleged inventions of Albert Gallatin Whitney. His bond was fixed at $500. The petitioners are Owen J. McNulty, Emil J. Vose and John Christ, who allege the assets principally consist of "Mythical plans and absurd inventions."

One of the inventions, it was alleged, consisted in "Rejecting or shooting above and beyond the atmosphere of the planet commonly known as the earth, four brass balls, which are supposed to gently and peaceably remain beyond said atmosphere after once having been shot or thrown up there."

TWAIN RECOVERS.

Aged Humorist Had a Very Close Call This Time.

New York, Jan. 10.—Samuel L. Clemens, Mark Twain, who has been confined to his bed with acute bronchitis for three weeks at his new home in Fifth avenue, is reported to be recovering. He is still in bed, however. The humorist moved into the house only a few days before he was taken ill, and for a number of days the physicians feared pneumonia. This was ward off, and for the last three days he has been rapidly recovering.

AFTER THEIR SCALPS

District Attorney Jerome Insists Saloons Close On Sunday.

REMOVE MAYOR McCLELLAN

Both Chief of Police and Mayor of New York to Be Removed if They Refuse to Enforce the Sunday Closing Laws.

New York, Jan. 10.—District Attorney Jerome is out after Police Commissioner McAdoo and Mayor McClellan because the liquor law, he says, is not being enforced.

To put the charge that the town is wide open up to the commissioner and the mayor, he yesterday afternoon tendered his backbone to the several organizations of the Methodist Episcopal church then in session at the rooms of the National Temperance Society, Fourteenth street, Manhattan. His offer to go with a committee to Commissioner McAdoo and demand that the Sunday liquor law be enforced, and later to the mayor to ask for the commissioner's removal if he failed to enforce the law, and finally to Gov. Higgins to ask him to remove both the mayor and the commissioner, led to the passage of a resolution for the appointment of such committee, to be composed of twenty-one persons.

Jerome's talk that led up to this action was blunt. In substance he said the reformers talked without acting. Reform movements had no backbone. Ninety per cent of the saloons were wide open Sundays, and in Coney Island every hour there were two thousand violations of the law. Strong and Low were defeated because they enforced the law and any administration that enforced it was doomed to defeat also.

While Jerome was expounding the folly of preaching without action to the Methodist clergymen, reformers were denouncing the Raines law hotels at a "legislative luncheon" at the Chelsea, on West Twenty-third street, Manhattan, of the New York state anti-saloon league, at which twenty-seven social and reform organizations were represented. At the gathering resolution were adopted condemning the Raines law hotels and it was unanimously decided that steps should be taken to secure amendments to the law requiring certificates from the fire, health and building departments, as to the adaptability of buildings for hotel purposes before a license was granted.

Amendments to the excise law were favored extending local option, now permitted in towns only, to corresponding districts in cities, for public hearings on protests against licenses, revocation of license for good cause, repeal of provision requiring the consent of the excise commission before proceedings can be begun revocation of license to apply to place for at least two years after revocation.

Don't wait too long and be sorry later. NOW is the time to get special Bargains at Herman Wise's big Clothing shop. WISE knows how.

Should Be Warm One.

San Francisco, Jan. 10.—A crowded house greeted the initial performance of "Mipah" at the Majestic last night, the new poetic drama by Ella Wheeler Wilcox and Luscombe Searelle. The play proved quite a success and the criticism in all quarters was favorable, the production being generally accepted as highly meritorious upon the part of the authors.

TWO MEN INJURED.

Fell Off the Roadway on Taylor Avenue in Uniontown.

Two men, named John Orstrom and John Larsen, while at work on Taylor avenue, a new street being improved in Uniontown, fell to the beach below, a distance of 15 feet, striking on some rocks and were severely injured. The staging upon which they were at work gave way. Charles Wilson and several other men went to their assistance and carried them to their homes. Medical assistance was summoned. Orstrom had his leg badly bruised and was otherwise injured on the body. Larsen had two ribs broken and two gashes cut in his head. While their injuries are not considered dangerous, it was a narrow escape. Both men are married and have families.

The Effective Remedy

WASHINGTON, IOWA, April 4, 1905.

I was troubled for over a year with so scanty a flow that it was virtually suppression. A heavy cold superinduced this condition and nothing I could do seemed to help me. The only effective remedy I ever found was Wine of Cardui. Within two weeks I felt the good effects of the medicine and after I had used 12 bottles in all I was as healthy and regular as any woman could wish to be.

My sister used it while expecting to become a mother and found that it made childbirth comparatively easy and after the child was born she found that it helped her to regain her strength.

WINE OF CARDUI

Wine of Cardui cures nine out of every ten cases of the disorders of menstruation. These cures are permanent, whether the trouble is complicated or not.

Wine of Cardui cures the sickness of young girls, relieves the weakness of adults, banishes leucorrhoea, headaches, backaches and nervousness and eases the crisis attendant on the change of life.

Thousands of mothers besides Miss Root's sister have found grateful relief from the pains of childbirth and have had a quick and happy recovery from its use. You cannot afford to suffer when $1.00 bottles are sold by all druggists.
